

Erica Wang is a senior at Canyon Crest Academy and studies flute with Pam Martchev. In 2022, Erica was one of four flutists selected to play in the National Youth Orchestra (NYO-USA), where she toured Europe and performed as principal flutist under the direction of Daniel Harding. She is an NPR “From the Top” Fellow, a Wm. Haynes Co. Young Artist, a Grand Prize Finalist in the Music Center’s Spotlight, and principal flutist at the San Diego Youth Symphony.

At age 14, Erica was the 2nd place winner of the National Flute Association’s High School Soloist Competition and the recipient of the Deveau Scholarship for Best Performance of Commissioned Work. She has won first place in numerous competitions, including the Goodlin Scholarship Competition, Music Scholarship Council Instrumental Scholarship, the Southeast Michigan Flute Association High School Competition, and the San Diego Flute Guild Youth Artist Competitions.

Erica has performed in ensembles such as the National Youth Orchestra 2 (NYO2), the Idyllwild Summer Symphony Orchestra, and the California All-Southern Wind Symphony. She has also been invited to several flute workshops including Beyond the Masterclass, the Linda Chesis Flute Retreat, and the Domaine Forget International Music Festival. In the past, she has performed in masterclasses with Emmanuel Pahud, Julien Beaudiment, Jim Walker, Denis Bouriakov, Jennifer Gunn, and Demarre McGill.
